The Peaks
1927
VOLUME III

As a token of our love and esteem for one who has been a friend and guide as well as teacher throughout our high school career and whose influence and example has ever tended to develop in each of her pupils that which is highest and best, do we,

THE CLASS OF 1927

dedicate

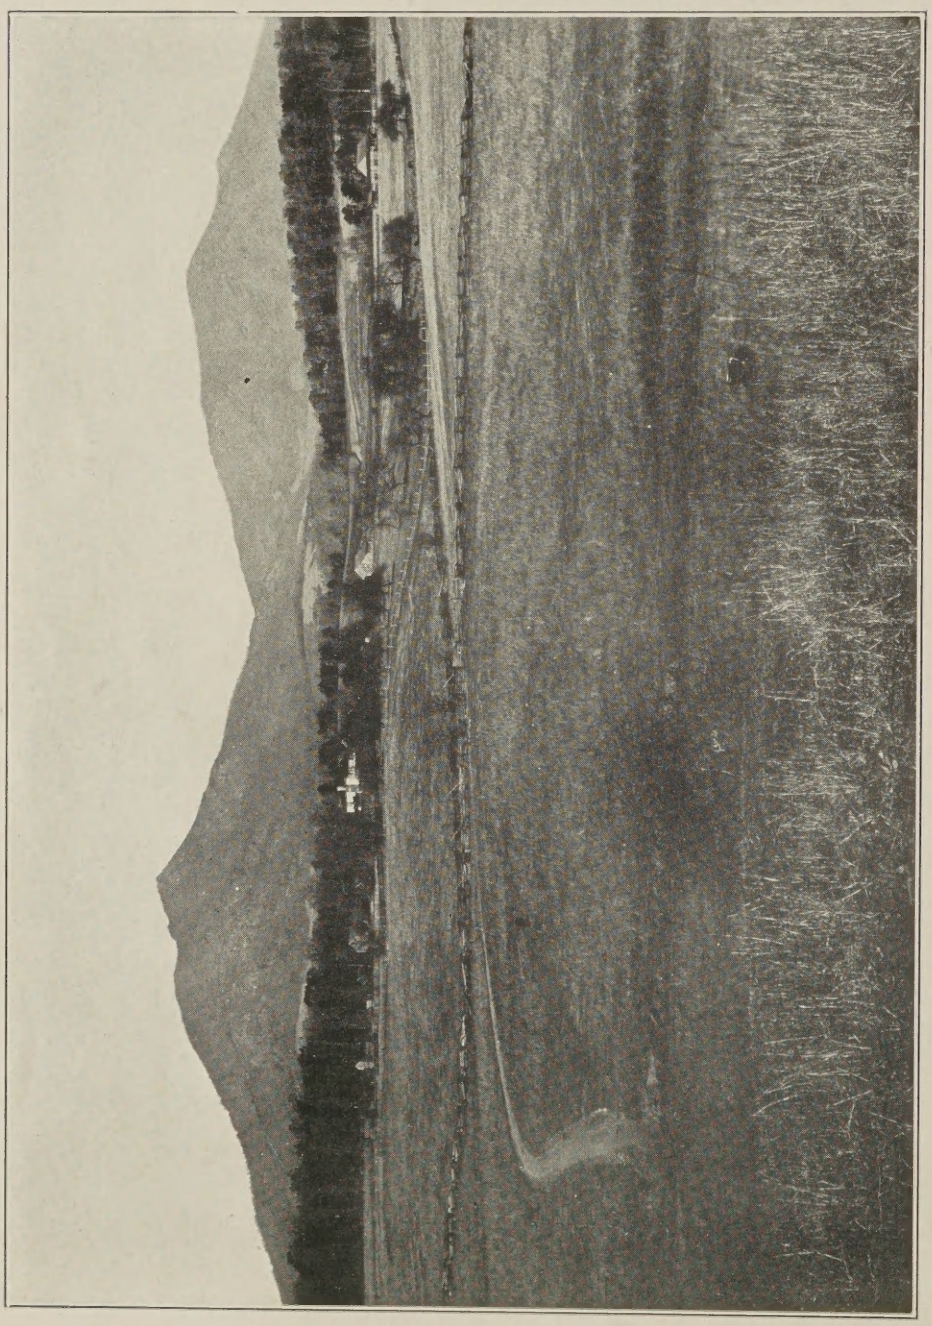

this, the third volume of

Post Graduates

DELLA BROWN PADGETT

"Darling"

"Darling" is one of the best and most attractive girls in old B. H. S. She is distinguished for her wonderful success in basket-ball. For two years she won the vote for being the most athletic girl in high school. Della did not have the heart to leave the high school so she came back to take a few subjects while she is learning a trade which she expects to take up later in life. Much success and happiness to you.

FAVORITE SAYING: "I 'on't care."

WILLIAM THOMAS

"Billy"

"Billy" is the lady killer, but can you blame the ladies? He is very striking in appearance, and a good all-around sport. You can't fool "Billy" about many things either, for he is quick and energetic in all activities. Call on "Billy" when you want to have a rollicking good time.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Hang no."

MARGARET DUNLOP MORRISON

"Slim" "Sunshine"

"Slim" is one of the best looking girls at B. H. S. She isn't one of the "beautiful, but dumb" type, because she is bright as well as good looking and attractive. She is a member of '26, but '27 welcomed her back to enjoy another year with them. Not only has Margaret taken great interest in athletics but in any activity in which she could be of service. B. H. S. will feel her loss when she leaves.

FAVORITE SAYING: "That is not so!!"

OFFICERS

MOULTON OVERSTREET ..... President
LLOYD GOODE ..... Vice-President
KATHERINE GEERING ..... Secretary-Treasurer

Class Flower: Iris
Motto: Facta non verba
Colors: Purple and Gold
Mascot: Mary Lydia Lyle

MARY LYDIA LYLE
Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Lyle, mascot of the Class of 1927

Senior Class

EVELYN AYRES

"Evelyn"

Wilsonian Literary Society; Athletic Association

Isn't that a dashing young girl? Who is she? Why, it is Evelyn Ayres. We can't forget Evelyn and our good old High School Days. She's quick and attractive and is always present for any fun or amusement. Don't we adore her cheery way and that enchanting smile?

FAVORITE SAYING: "O, Jollie."

CATHARYNE BOND

"Kitty"

Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27.

Who is that stylish, attractive girl? Why, it is Catharyne. You can't forget her, can you? She's ready to enter into all pursuits, good times or otherwise. All of us love to be with Catharyne.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Heck no."

FRANK BOWYER

"Sheik"

Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '26-'27

Frank joined us two years ago, and everyone has enjoyed having him in the class. Frank is very popular with the girls, and he is seen walking down the street with them almost every day. If Frank is as successful after he leaves school as he has been in school, he will go far. Our best wishes follow him.

FAVORITE SAYING: "I know I flunked."

Senior Class

ELEANOR BOWER

"Peggy"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Society, '24-'25-'26-'27.

All of us love Eleanor. She is a true blue person to all of us. There's a certain air, a dignity and assurance that will make her something worth while one of these days. Eleanor is attractive and full of good sport and fun." My, but she's smart. She rarely ever misses a thing. We adore Eleanor.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Oh me."

CLARENCE BUCK

"Preacher"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '25-'26-'27; President of Literary Society, '27; Business Manager of "The Peaks," '27.

"Preacher" is an all-round good fellow. He does everything well and has proved to be a splendid manager of THE PEAKS. He is very popular, especially among the ladies. We don't know what his plans are but we know that he'll succeed at whatever he undertakes.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Hang."

ELIZABETH BURKS

"Shorty"

Athletic Association, '23-'24-'25-'26-'27; Literary Society, '26-'27; Annual Staff.

Elizabeth is here. All of us feel so much better. Why, she is planning this, planning that, giggling about this, helping out on that. Elizabeth is the handy man of the class. She's a natural born leader. Can we resist following her, be the path rosy or one of thorns? No, I hardly think so. Her witticisms are quick and many, and they float around school all of the time. But Elizabeth knows when to stop her foolishness. There's a sterling worth about her. She will always stick trim and fast. Elizabeth can be dumb or bright just as the occasion demands. Aren't we going to miss Elizabeth when she gets out into the world?

FAVORITE SAYING: "Good Caesar's misery."

Senior Class

SENORAH COCKE

"Nora"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '26-'27; French Medal.

Senorah is certainly characterized by her thorough ability, her steady good nature, and a certain ingenuity when it comes to coping with the French language. Don't we envy her smooth, fluent command of that language? You really can't stump her in many things. She's a real thinker, but even better than that, she is a girl worth while who can always smile when all goes wrong.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Gee."

MILDRED CRAGHEAD

"Mit"

Literary Society, '25-'26-'27; Athletic Association, '23-'24-'25-'26-'27.

Mildred, without a doubt, is one of the most attractive girls in the Senior class. She has always been a favorite, especially with the boys.

She is a loyal, true, and faithful friend. She has a winning personality that we are sure will gain many friends for her in the future. Best of luck.

FAVORITE SAYING: "You would."

RACHEL GIBBS

"Midget"

Literary Society, '25-'26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27; Basket-ball, '25-'26-'27; "B" Club, '25-'26-'27.

Rachel is very small in stature. She is attractive and always knows a funny joke. Everyone likes her for her willingness to help them with their studies. She is also a good musician.

FAVORITE SAYING: "I did not."

Senior Class

KATHERINE GEERING

"Tat," "Katrina"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27; Annual Staff.

Katherine has a way all her own; so piquent; so efficient; the acme of neatness and order. She's a petite girl in stature, but you can't give her any problem or duty to perform that she doesn't come out almost a hundred per cent perfect. Our Senior class could not do the things we do were it not for Katherine.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Bring me those dues."

LLOYD GOODE

"Buzzy"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '23-'24-'25-'26-'27; Football, '26-'27; Baseball, '26-'27; Basket-ball, '27; "B" Club, '26-'27.

When "Buzzy" is around there's a real buzz in the atmosphere, a snapping into it, a bustle, be it athletics, good time, or school occasions. We can't forget that reassuring way, that determined manner, that "stick to it" attitude. "Buzzy" is a real friend, a true blue sport. What will we do without "Buzzy"?

FAVORITE SAYING: "You don't say so?"

CATHRYN HATCHER

"Ran"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '26-'27.

Truly, precious things come in small packages. Though small, Cathryn has won a large place in our hearts and we all love her. She is a good sport and ever ready for fun.

However, there is a serious side to her, for she makes fine grades and can read more Latin than the Romans could.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Mercy."

Senior Class

PAULINE JOHNSON

"Polly"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '25-'26; Athletic Association, '23-'24-'25-'26-'27.

A winning smile, a good classmate, and friend—that is "Polly." In those laughing brown eyes danger lies, for we notice that they have an amazing quality of making the boys stop, look, and listen. She intends to go to college but—who knows. However, success to you, old pal.

FAVORITE SAYING: "I wouldn't like to say."

RANDOLPH LEE

"Ran"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '26-'27; Football, '27; Basket-ball, '27; Baseball, '26-'27; "B" Club, '26-'27.

We almost believe that we could say that Randolph is "Jack-of-All-Trades." Why, he goes out for every phase of athletics and does well in them, too. Nor is he at all wanting when it comes to appearing in all public and social affairs. Then, what we love most about him is that cheery good nature, that smile, that willingness to accommodate both pupil and teacher. The whole school will miss him next year, yes they will; and all will feel the lack of his cheery personality.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Yours truly."

EVELYN MARSH

"Sheepy"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'7; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27.

Can we ever forget Evelyn's good natured, open smile. Why, when she smiles the whole world brightens for us. Evelyn is sincere, very attractive, and can well be defined as a typical, healthy, optimistic American girl.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Oh, goodness."

Senior Class

RICHARD MICHAEL

"Dick"

Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '26-'27

Richard is a quiet, goodhearted boy who comes to us from the country. He seems to care little about the girls, but we feel that he will overcome this. We are sure that "Dick" will succeed in life if he goes after it as he has his education. Good luck, "Dick."

FAVORITE SAYING: "I don't know."

LULA MORRISON

"Black"

Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27; Girls' Basket-ball, '27; Girls' "B" Club, '27.

Lula is the class poet. Her poems are always popular. We expect great things from her in the field of literature.

She is not only talented but also attractive. She is very popular with the boys, and they may keep her from the field of literature for a field closer home. However, no one is too good for her, not even a "Preacher."

FAVORITE SAYING: "Shucks."

MARIE NICHOLS

"Nickels"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Girls' Basket-ball, '25-'26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27; Girls' "B" Club, '25-'26-'27.

Here comes Marie, slow but, oh, so sure. You can always count on Marie. She always sticks by, regardless of the weather. Marie is so sincere, and there is a sense of humor about her that will make her succeed in life. There is not a person full of more honest, everyday fun than Marie. Well, we just can't forget her.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Oh, good lawd."

Senior Class

LUCILLE OVERSTREET

"Lucille"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '25-'26-'27.

Lucille is one of the girls of our class who never goes to class unprepared. She knows nothing of disobedience so she never gets into trouble, as many of us do.

She is very quiet, but her pleasant smile has won a place for her in our hearts. We leave her with regret.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Good day."

MOULTON OVERSTREET

"Muley"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27; Football, '26-'27; Boys' "B" Club, '26-'27; President of Junior Class; President of Senior Class.

Attention. A salute to Moulton, president of the Class of '27, to the friend who led us in our last year at Bedford High. Besides being our president, "Muley" was voted the most popular and the best all-around boy in the class.

"Muley" is a staunch friend and an agreeable companion. He always likes to "pose" and impersonate "big" men. Moulton made good in football, is studious, and is not lazy, so we predict that before long he can pose as a "big" man, and not be impersonating.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Yeah."

LAURA JETER PARKER

"Jete"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '26-'27.

You just can't blame anyone for liking "Jete." Why, she's always in a good humor, always ready to laugh when you are happy or cry when you are sad. "Jete" is just so much fun, so genuine, a real person you'd always love. Nor does she miss one thing, for "Jete" is very quick and smart in all activities.

We are sorry that "Jete," on account of ill health, couldn't graduate with us.

FAVORITE SAYING: "You're just cockeyed."

Senior Class

VIRGINIA PRESTON

"Jinx"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27.

Hasn't Virginia got an attractive way about her? She just looks you straight in the eye and gets at the real truth of things. Virginia is steady, thoughtful, and awfully good natured. She's peppery too and keeps in the full "jump" of affairs. Aren't we going to miss her?

FAVORITE SAYING: "What'd you say?"

MARGUERITE RAMSEY

"Reetsie"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27.

Wouldn't all of us like to be as neat, efficient and sincere as Marguerite? When in doubt, always call on her; she can clear up almost anything. She's a comforting person to know, and loves all the good times as well. "Reetsie" was voted the sweetest girl in our class.

FAVORITE SAYING: "My word."

CHARLES RHETT

"Charlie"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '23-'24-'25-'26-'27; Football, '26-'27; "B" Club, '26-'27; President of Athletic Association, '27.

The Senior class elected "Charlie" the sweetest and handsomest boy in the class. This is a great combination for a boy and "Charlie" certainly takes advantage of it for no one knows the number of girls he has on his string.

In spite of the girls, "Charlie" is a true friend and will do anything he can for one. He is a very good athlete, a good student, and is liked by all who know him. Here's wishing you as much success in all fields, "Charlie," as you have had in high school.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Thunder."

Senior Class

MARGARET ROWLETT

"Speed Ball"

Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27.

There's an everyday atmosphere of cheer and achievement about Margaret. She's always smiling and is always willing to lend a helping hand. She has won many friends at Bedford High, and we wish her the best of luck in whatever career she may choose.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Law Honey."

WILLIAM RUCKER

"Billy"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '22-'23-'24-'25-'26-'27; Secretary of Athletic Association; Annual Staff.

"Impulsive, honest, prompt to act,
He makes his greatest thought an act."

If you want someone to do something for you and want it done right, just go to Billy Rucker. He might truly be called a good, substantial friend. Great knowledge is his; this we can prove by just one glance at his report card or at the list of medals he has won.

We feel sure that Billy will indeed be a credit to his Alma Mater at college and through life. Here's to the Editor-in-Chief of THE PEAKS, who has fulfilled his duty with the greatest efficiency.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Gosh."

RALPH STREET

"Red Light Street"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '27; Athletic Association, '27.

Ralph has only been with us for one year, but we feel a real loss in not having him with us longer. He has proved to be a true friend, and his good humor makes him popular everywhere. We are sorry that he is leaving town soon and our regards go with him wherever he goes.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Do you reckon?"

Senior Class

ELIZABETH SPRADLIN

"Lee"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27; Secretary of Sophomore and Junior Classes; Annual Staff.

There's a delicate and illusive charm, an inexpressible daintiness about Elizabeth. Nor does she merely stay in the dainty realms of life. You simply cannot suppress her eagerness for knowledge. Elizabeth is not only smart, but she has a scintillating wit and an inquisitive turn of mind that makes her go deep down into the ideas of all school work and find out the why of it. But let us refrain from all seriousness of thought and intellectuality, for "Lee" has fun in her, real appreciation of all good times. She can just get right down and be as "dumb" as can any of us.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Well, what's the difference?"

RUSSIE TURNER

"Russie"

Literary Society, '25-'26; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27.

"Russie" came back to us this year after Christmas and the general cry was, "Here's Russie,' for she was one of the most popular girls of our Junior class. We are sure she will make a success of nursing because of her good looks and personality. Best of luck.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Ain't that something?"

LEAH VAUGHAN

"Leah"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '24-'25-'26-'27; Math Medal; Annual Staff.

"Leah" is a real girl, a splendid sport in all activities. You can always count on "Leah." Don't you feel reassured, comforted, when "Leah" is around? Everything is bound to work out just right because she's concerned with it. There are few scholastic problems that "Leah" can't cope with; she has a mind, will, and personality that will make her famous one of these days.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Heck."

Senior Class

VIRGINIA WALKER

"Ginnia"

Literary Society, '25-'26; Athletic Association, '23-'24-'25-'26-'27.

Virginia is one of our quiet Seniors who never says much but thinks a lot. She is the same wherever you see her, and she is with a smile. She is always willing to help, and we know that she will succeed no matter what phase of life she decides to take. Good luck, friend.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Good day."

HOLMAN WARE

"Sally"

Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '25-'26-'27.

On the mark. Get set. Go, but, O, we can't go. Holman isn't here. There's no need of our starting until he comes, for everything is incomplete without Holman. He's always the good sport, the steady oak, when it's a question of social or school life. Aren't we going to miss that attractive expression, "O, shucks," that good natured smile, that accommodating way and consideration for both pupil and teacher, and that sweet, sincere understanding that always cheers us.

FAVORITE SAYING: "O, Shucks."

GLADYS WHITE

"Happy"

Wilsonian Literary Society, '26-'27; Athletic Association, '26-'27.

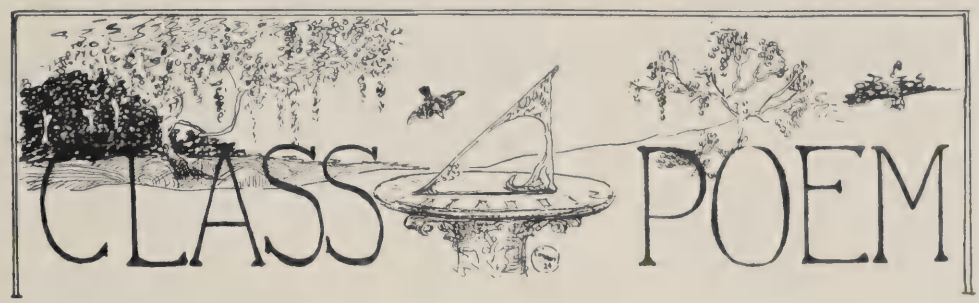

There's a charm and dignity about Gladys that makes her the popular girl she is. She knows when to put that dignity aside and is one of the best sports ever when it's a question of good times. Gladys is quick, friendly, and attractive enough to win her way in the world. She was voted the prettiest girl in the Senior class.

FAVORITE SAYING: "Hang."

In Memory of

Holman Ware

With sorrow we learned of Holman's death
soon after graduation.
A true friend who stood for all that is best in school and home life.

For many weary years we've longed
For graduation day,
The time when we could end our care
And face the future glad and gay.

But since at last the day has dawned,
There's a sadness we can't repress,
Comes deep from in our wistful hearts
On leaving dear old B. H. S.

The help and guidance of the teachers dear
Has made us fit for life,
So when we're thrust upon the world
We'll battle and win through every strife.

Our high school days we'll ne'er forget,
And as we review our happy careers,
We'll remember how we toiled and played
During these four decisive years.

Dear Bedford Hi, we're leaving you,
For our high school journey ends,
So now, classmates of 27,
The world calls us from our friends.

LULA MORRISON.

JUNIOR

As we come to the close of our Junior year, it is with pleasure that we recall to mind the events of the three preceding years. We remember very distinctly when we were termed "rats" and had our names written in THE PEAKS in small letters.

In our Sophomore year the honor of making the "new rats" feel the importance of their position was bestowed upon us and we "administered unto them as it had been administered unto us."

But now, we hardly know what to term this period of time unless it was meant for a vacation before entering our Senior year; however the teachers must have misunderstood, by the length of the lessons they have given us throughout the year. The only consolation that we have for the coming year, is the privilege of a Senior.

Acrostic

S is for Second, the year of our class,
Soon we'll be Seniors if only we pass.

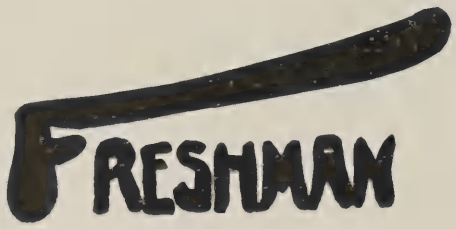

E is for Everyone in this same class;
May joy fill the cup of each lad and each lass.

C is for College to which we may go,
If only dear teachers won't mark us so low.

O is for Ocean with blue sky above,
In depth and in beauty a type of class love.

N for New Building which bonds will obtain,
And also relieve our dear principal's pain.

D for Detention a word we might spell
With another and worse one, and that is—Oh Well!

"Rat" Calendar

SEPTEMBER 9—Scared to death and afraid to run—our first day as citizens of the B. H. S. world. On this occasion it was found that we were a doughty band numbering 72. However since that date, casualties have reduced our number to 59.

DECEMBER 22—Christmas vacation—wild excitement—two weeks vacation and Santa Claus—we are still young, you see.

JANUARY 21—Mid-term examinations. The less said about this, the better.

MAY 31—We have received our B. V. D. degrees, which our teachers translated on an average of one hundred times a day, as "Being Very Dumb." We don't tell all we know to everybody who wants to know it. At any rate our work as freshmen is at an end (we hope for all of us). We willingly resign our place to those whom we hope will be as green as we once were. And may they likewise reach a certain degree of intelligence.

Charlie Rhett: "Are you going to the fair?"
Carr White: "What fair?"
Charlie: "The paper says fair here to-day and to-morrow."

Billy Rucker: "The trout was so long—I tell you I never saw such a fish!"
Clarence Buck: "No, I don't suppose you ever did."

Peggy Pearman: " I say Corinne, I've an idea!"
Corinne Bosby: "Be good to it, it's in a strange place."

Edith Jarvis: "A little bird told me you were going to buy me a diamond necklace."
Billy Thomas: "It must have been a little coo-koo."

Dorothy Talbott: "Have you ever been rescued?"
Thelma Daniel: "No, I can't get a man, to save my life."

Randolph Lee: "I've just been filing Cathryn's old love letters."
Ralph Street: "Were they as rough as all that?"

Elizabeth Spradlin: "Is my face dirty, or is it my imagination?"
Elizabeth Burks: "I don't know about your imagination, but your face is clean."

Lula Morrison (at a party): "Dear, these cakes are hard as stone!"
Rachel Gibbs: "I know. Didn't you hear the hostess say, 'Take your pick,' when she handed them around?"

Clarence Buck: "Remember the time we met in a revolving door?"
Lula Morrison: "Yes, that's the time we started going around together."

Katherine Geering: "What a beautiful mouth you have, it ought to be on a girl."

Moulton Overstreet: "It is, as often as possible."

Dumb: "My grandfather built the Rocky Mountains."

Dumber: "Aw, that's nothing. Do you know the Dead Sea? Well my grandfather killed it."

Charlie Rhett: "May I hold your hand?"

Nancy Burks: "Of course not! This isn't Palm Sunday."

Charlie: "Well it isn't Independence Day either."

Elizabeth Gibbs: "Do you believe one should start the habit of kissing early?"

Lewis Carter: "Well, nowadays, a girl who has reached sixteen and never been kissed is going to reach forty in the same state."

Eleanor Bower: "What did Longfellow mean when he wrote 'Tell me not in Mournful Numbers'?"

Katherine Geering: "He must have been riding in a taxi."

She: "Laura doesn't take any chances, does she?"

He: "Not many—she wouldn't accompany me on the piano without a chaperon."

Elizabeth Burks: "Bridge, Bridge, let's play Bridge."

Marie Nichols: "You'll die at the Bridge Table."

Elizabeth: "Then bury me with simple honors."

Sweet Young Thing: "I'd like to try on that rose dress in the window."

Modiste: "Sorry madam. That's a lamp shade."

Minister: "I hear, Paddie, they've gone dry in the village where your brother lives."

Paddie: "Dry, Man! They're parched. I've just had a letter from Mike and the postage stamp was stuck on with a pin."

Stranger: "How does the land lie out this way?"

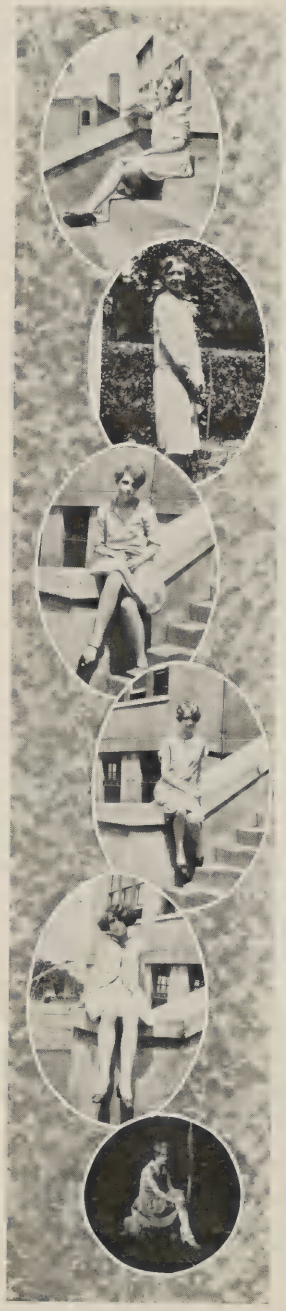

Villager: "It ain't the land that lies; it's the real estate agent."
